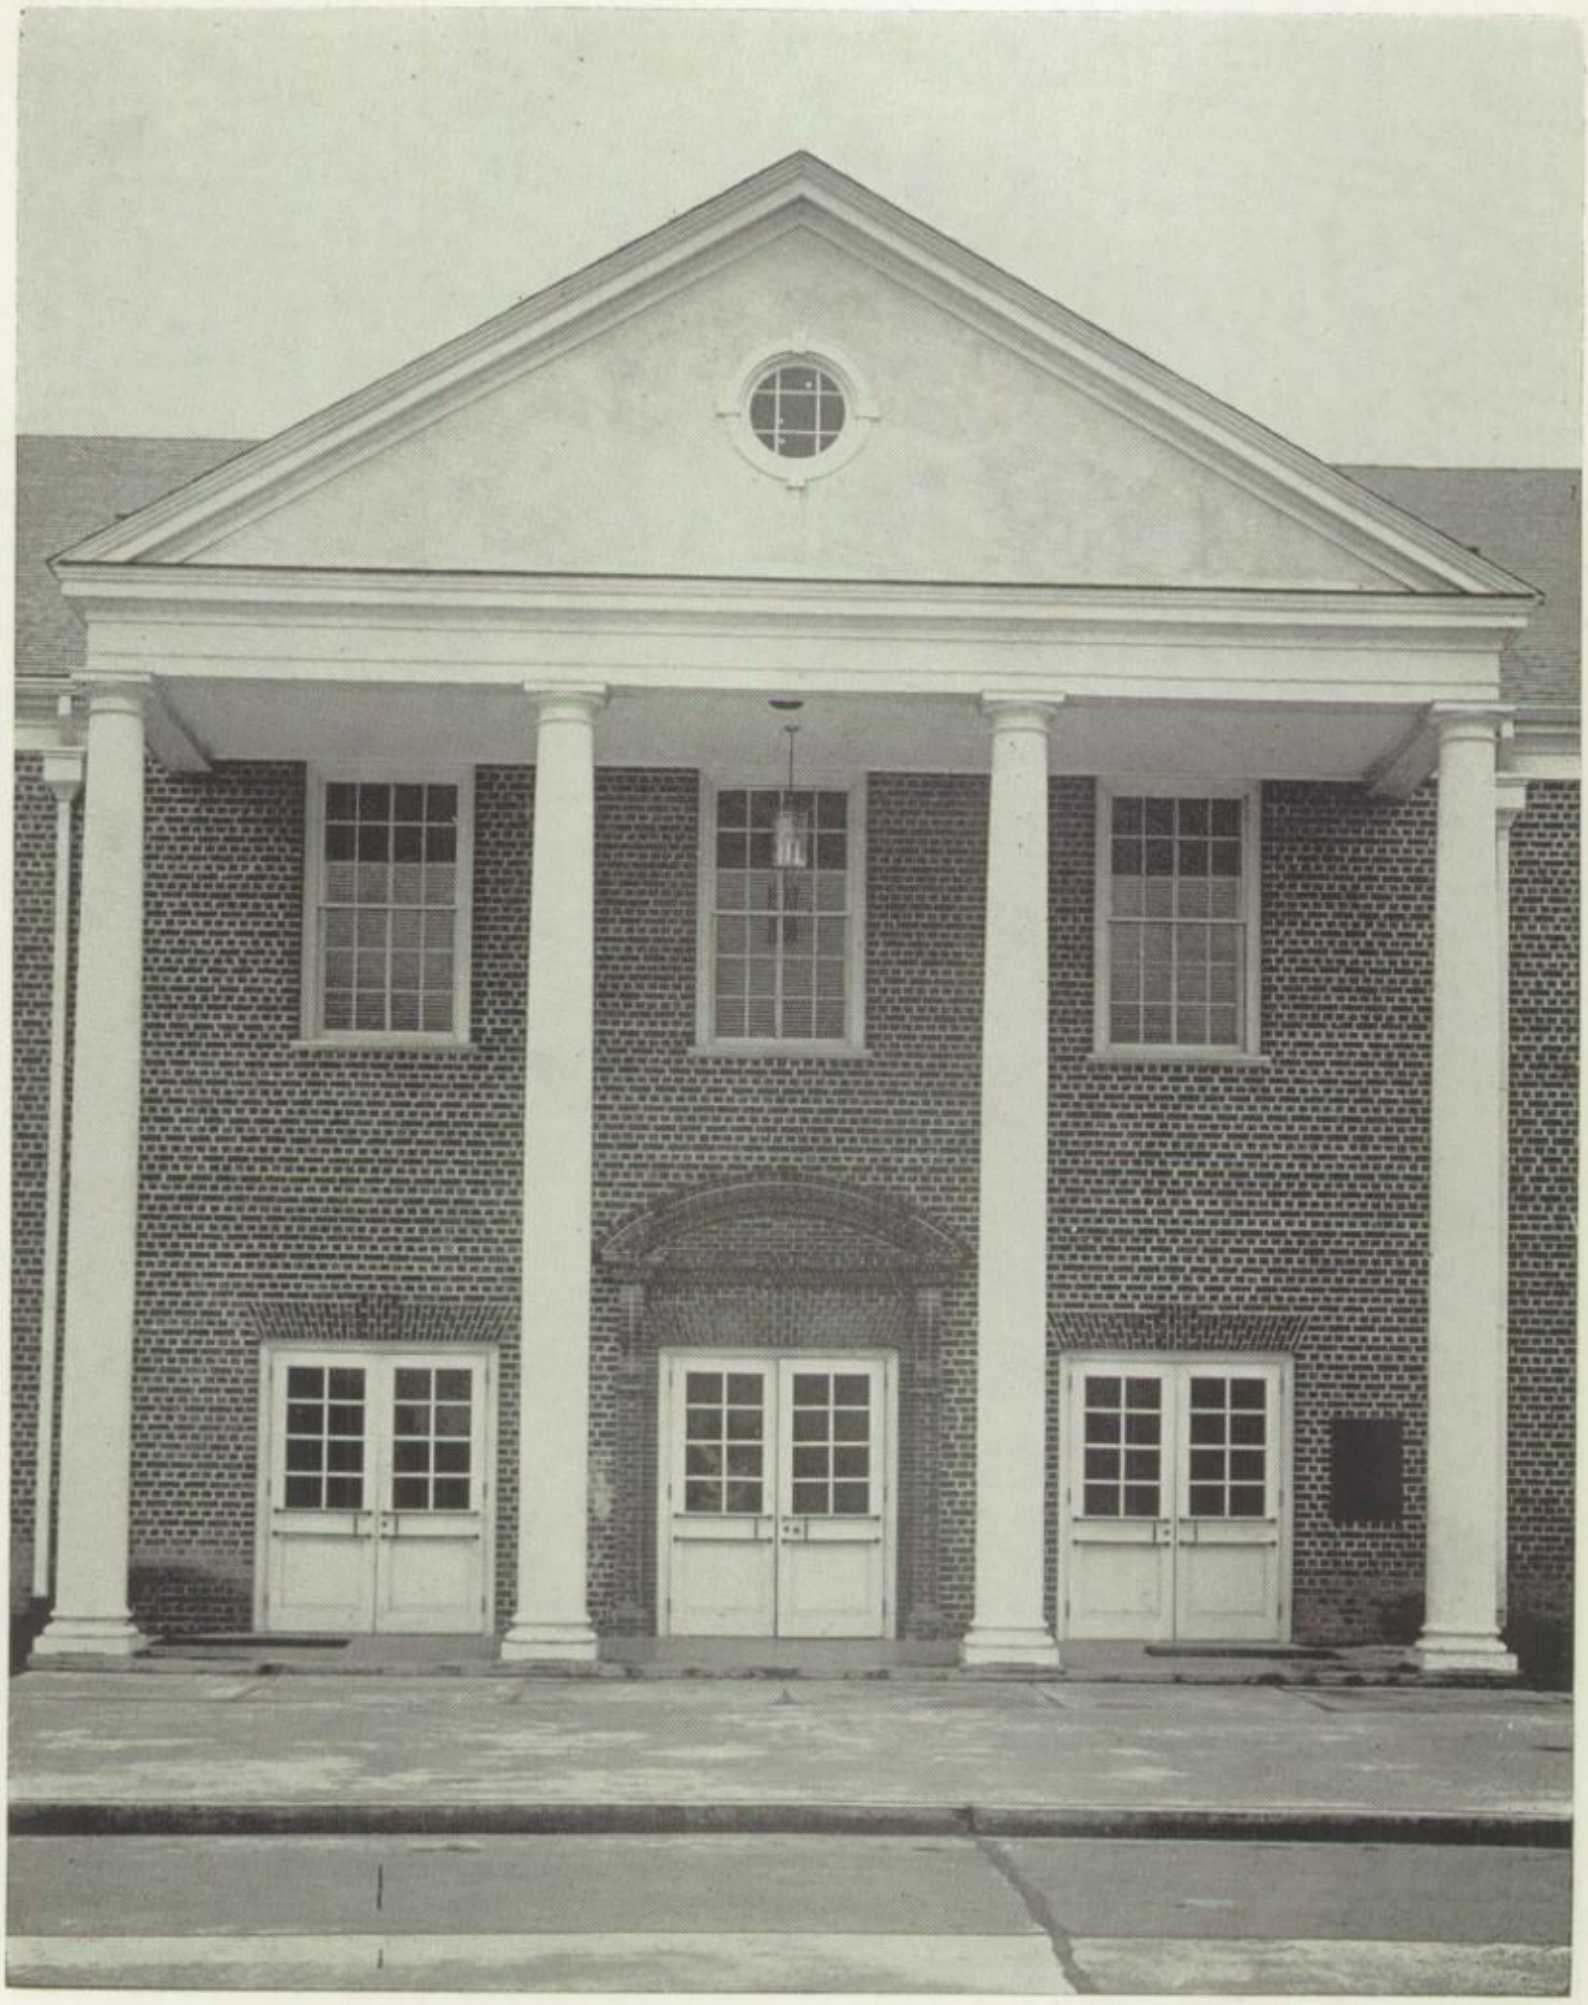
ALBROKAN

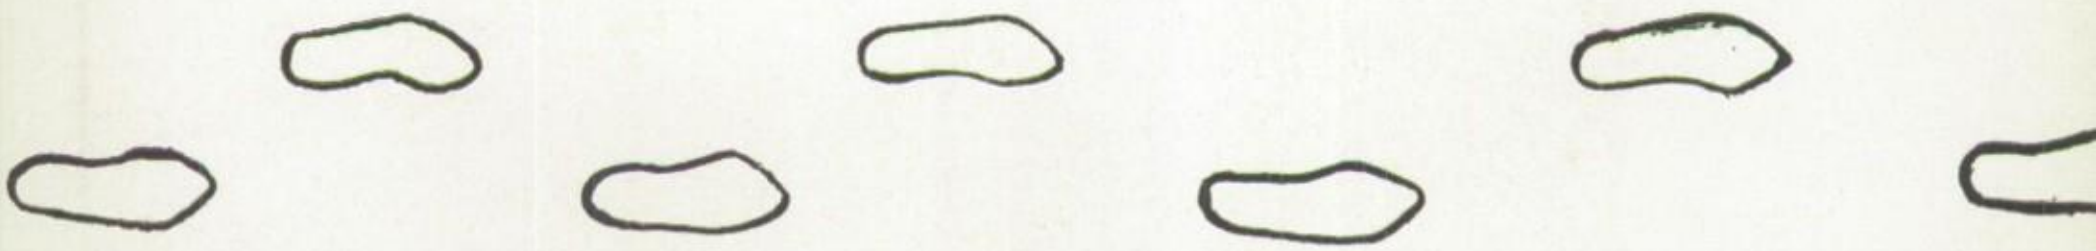
the Little Wonder conducts a tour

OF A. L. BROWN HIGH SCHOOL, KANNAPOLIS, N. C.,



THRU THE 1955

Albrokan



F O R E W O R D

All aboard! The Little Wonder is prepared to take you on an excursion through the never-to-be-forgotten years you spent as a student in Brown High.

Once again, he will direct you down the corridors of learning, introduce teachers and friends, whom you once saw every day, guide you through the clubs and extra-curricular activities, and review the achievements in athletics.

Whenever (now or twenty years from today) you feel the desire to travel creeping into you, pick up the 1955 ALBROKAN, turn the leaves, and let the Little Wonder again make footprints across the years, recalling the fondest memories of BHS.

D E D I C A T I O N

To Miss Frances Bounds, whose sincerity and Christian character have inspired us to achieve new heights, whose competence in teaching and guiding us has prepared us for the future, we the Seniors of A. L. Brown, expressing our praise, love, and thanks, do hereby dedicate this the 1955 Albrokan.

Here Endeth;
Here Beginneth

Here endeth a phase of each life
Here beginneth another new part
Here endeth our toil and our strife
Here maketh we each a new start.

Here endeth our childish ways
Here beginneth our life in earnest
Here endeth our care-free days
Here beginneth the years that are sternest.

Here endeth the friendships of youth
Which have brightened each passing day
Here strengtheneth bonds of truth
Which ever lead the right way.

Here shineth knowledge as light
A beacon in life's great test
O'ercoming the ignorance of night
And gaining the things which are best.

Here boweth we now to pray
To thank our Lord for His grace
And solemnly promise alway
To constantly seek His face.

To the senior classes of future days,
As your life unfolds to each new phase,
We, the graduates, do pledge this toast
To help you a better record to post.
Three things a youth must do if he is to succeed.
To think clearly before trying each new deed.
To act quickly to help his fellowman.
To trust completely in God's helping hand.
Now our final year is all but finished,
Yet our dreams and hopes have not diminished.
We are ending one act only to start anew.
We leave to keeping of A. L. Brown to you.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

BETTY BOSTIAN
Historian

The clock hands on the basketball scoreboard were moving rapidly toward the end of game time. It was the last game of the season. The team work displayed by the players, the ability of the coaches in their guidance, and the four quarters of hard work, companionship, and sincere efforts brought the team of 195 seniors to the championship game of the year.

The buzzer sounded. The game was over. Our team, though smaller than previous squads, was victorious.

Our trophy was a much desired diploma. After receiving the award my teammates and I settled back to enjoy a review of the game highlights.

FIRST QUARTER

The game began in the fall of 1951 at J. W. Cannon High with Miss Myrtle Farrell as head coach. Aiding her were our council members, Pat Doby and Jerry Ridenhour. The captains included Gilbertine Maulden, president; James White, vice-president; Kelly Mabry, secretary, and Sandra Jones, treasurer.

We weren't very experienced and often the going was rough, but soon we learned to know and become friends with the other 357 members of the squad.

Near the end of the quarter, we had really learned the knack of the game, and we celebrated with a square dance and picnic in the gym. Further proof of our advancements was the election of Keith Lemly and Jerry Ridenhour to the cheerleading squad.

SECOND QUARTER

The going became rougher and for this reason our team was soon reduced to 299. Our new coach was Edwin L. VanPoole. Pushing the team up the steep cliff of learning were our president, Max Barrett; vice-president, Bobby Waller; secretary, Richard Jackson, and treasurer, Doug Russell. Serving as co-captains were David Bullock and Mary Margaret Gribble, our council members.

Gilbertine Maulden received the highest honor of the quarter, as she served as treasurer of the student body.

Other honors went to Mary Margaret Gribble, Sylvia McCommons, Gilbertine Maulden, Betty Poole, and Kay Thomason when they were tapped into the National Honor Society on probation. David Bullock was merited for his ability and joined the ranks of Key Club International.

Much cheering was needed to lead our club to victory, so Janice Solomon, Don Thompson, Pat Doby, and Carolyn Phillips were elected to help lead the yells for the next quarter.

THIRD QUARTER

We were really a great ball club now, 241 strong. With the passing of time our friendships had grown deeper, our knowledge had grown greater, and our abilities had improved with experience.

Mrs. Margie Riddle was head coach, and Kelly Mabry and Jimmy Chambers were our co-captain council members. Aiding us in our advancement were our officers, David Bullock, president; Doug Russell, vice-president; Janice Solomon, secretary; Gilbertine Maulden, treasurer, and Carolyn Phillips and Betty Bostian, social chairmen.

We proudly watched Mary Margaret Gribble and Betty Poole installed as secretary and treasurer of the student body.

This quarter we played such good ball, that our superiors honored us at the Senior-Junior. It was like a big "Mardi Gras," and we knew we were coming along the road of success.

The group worked together by selling magazines and really demonstrated teamwork in the preparation of the Junior-Senior. Carolyn Phillips and Betty Bostian lead the class in the arrangements for the semi-formal banquet and dance, which followed the theme "Ebbtide." Yes, moonlight at ebbtide, starfish, and spray, all carry us back in a pleasurable way, to a ne'er to be forgotten first day of May.

Dozens of the class took part in the junior play, "Cheaper By The Dozen," directed by George Spence.

Because of the outstanding advancements of the team during this quarter, we were all awarded a class ring, which we wore with pride. Not long afterwards came our unforgettable trip to Washington, D. C.

Receiving further honors for their abilities were Sandra Jones, David Bullock, Carolyn Phillips, Peggy Craver, Sarah Ann Price, Patricia Elliott, and Betty Bostian, who were tapped into the Honor Society. Jimmy Chambers and Robert Lowder became members of the Key Club, and the Quill and Scroll tapping accredited David Bullock, Gilbertine Maulden, Peggy Jo Overcash, Carolyn Phillips, Sarah Ann Price, Betty Poole, and Betty Bostian. The newly-organized Troupe 1376 of the National Thespian Society credited Carolyn Phillips, Sandra Jones, Tony Sherrill, Carole Holland, David Bullock, Sarah Ann Price, Jimmy Chambers, and Betty Bostian with outstanding work in the dramatic field.

The highest honors of the entire game went to David Bullock and Gilbertine Maulden, as they were, respectively, elected president and vice-president of the student body.

Betty Poole and Betty Bostian were chosen co-editors of the ALBROKAN and Brown Highlights, and further honors went to Don Thompson, as he was elected chief cheerleader. Janice Solomon and Carolyn Phillips were elected to help him improve school spirit.

Gilbertine Maulden was chief commencement marshal, as the quarter drew to a close. Jerry Council, Betty Poole, Betty Bostian, Carol Crepps, Sandra Jones, Sylvia McCommons, Peggy Jo Overcash, Bill Dunn, Jimmy Rogers, Wanda Hearne, and Mary Margaret Gribble were also cited for their scholastic ability and served as commencement marshals. Jonnie Canup served as substitute marshal.

FOURTH QUARTER

The whistle blew. The big, experienced seniors took the floor to play the final quarter of the game. The quarter's activity included the election of officers, the selection of superlatives, the making of pictures in black ruffles and tuxedos, the choice of our mascots, poem, flower, and motto, the measurement for our caps and gowns, the ordering of invitations, calling cards, and diplomas, and a whirlwind of exciting events.

Our new coach was Miss Loraine Gray, our co-captains, the council members, Sandra Jones and Bill Dunn, and our leaders were president, Robert Lowder; vice-president, Doug Russell; secretary, Mary Margaret Gribble; treasurer, Peggy Craver, and social chairmen, Jonnie Canup and Carolyn Phillips.

Gilbertine Maulden's poem "Here Endeth, Here Beginneth" was selected as the best one submitted. The gardenia was the chosen class flower and pink and white, the colors. Vicki Ludwig and Robert Mitchell were named mascots. "Here endeth, here beginneth" was acknowledged as the motto of the class.

Bobby Waller and Buck Little served as co-captains of the football team, with Buck Little receiving the coveted Lug Leazer Award.

Honors to the fairer sex were granted to Dean Brigman, "Miss Brown High." She competed for the titles of "Miss Merry Christmas" and the queen of the Charlotte Carrousel. Janice Solomon was selected by the football team to reign as Homecoming Queen and Sandra Jones represented Brown High as Miss Hi Miss. This award is based on scholarship, character, and beauty.

Bill Dunn, Jerry Sweatt, Frederick Stirewalt, Gene Beam, Jerry Chisholm, and Michael Johnson were awarded membership in the Key Club, David Bullock serving as Lieutenant Governor of this division.

The Senior-Junior, a real "Dream," at which we honored the rising squad of seniors, still lingered in our minds, as we attended the banquet and dance, the Junior-Senior, which brought unforgettable memories. Near the end of the quarter things really picked up. New members were inducted into the Key Club and Thespian Society, tappings for Quill and Scroll and Honor Society were held, and the senior play brought in profits for our gift to the school.

Finally our annuals arrived, and they meant more to us than ever before.

In the closing seconds, we had to really assume the dignity of seniors, as we practiced for the Baccalaureate Sermon, Class Day, and, best of all, Graduation.

Then the buzzer sounded. It was all over. We had just lived four of the most wonderful quarters of our lives. Victory was ours!

The social lives we had learned to live, the mental knowledge we had gained, our heart-breaking and heart-warming experiences, and our many efforts had been advancements to prepare us for the game we were now to play, the Game of Life.

Let us not think of this ball game with a heavy heart, but as a preparation for a bigger and better game to be played in the future.

SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

Coaches Ed Edmiston and Dan Hamrick fielded another strong contender for football honors in the S.P.C. but bad breaks and inexperience caused the Wonders to fall to three strong opponents.

In the first game of the season the Wonders were soundly trounced to the tune of 21-0 by Albemarle but in their second start they avenged this defeat by overpowering Statesville, 20-6.

The team played their finest game of the season when they nosed out Concord, 7-6, in a fine defensive battle. During the season the locals compiled a total of 157 points to 110 for their opponents and ended the season in a tie for second place with Concord and Monroe.

Although the Wonders are losing 10 lettermen future prospects are good because of the skill of the remaining reserves.

LETTERMEN

Members of the team receiving Monograms include:

Ends: Howard Jones, Raymond Alexander, John Lamb, Bill Thompson.

Tackles: David Sweeney, Bill Belk, Joe Wright, Wayne Anderson.

Guards: Eugene Massey, Tony Sherrill, Gerald Hudspeth, Neal Pope.

Centers: Freddie Whitaker, Mickey Parks.

Backs: Leroy Scercy, Bobby Waller, Buck Little, Larry Hamby, Bobby Utley, Bobby Moss, Jerry Moss, Conrad Sloop.

The Wonder co-captains for this year were halfbacks Buck Little and Bobby Waller. Fullback Leroy Scercy, the leading scorer and ground gainer, received the Owen C. Hill Trophy and was named to the S.P.C. "All-Star" team. Buck Little was the receiver of the coveted Lug Leazer Award.

SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

The prospect of another conference winning team looked dim at the start of the season because the five regulars from last year's great club were lost by graduation. However, Coach Dan Hamrick had guided his team to nine straight wins when the ALBROKAN went to press and it looked as if the Wonders were going to take their fourth consecutive South Piedmont Conference Championship.

Forward Bill Hubbard and center Leroy Scercy were chosen to lead the team as co-captains for the '55 season. Hubbard and Scercy also led the club in the individual scoring bracket with averages of twenty points per game and better.

The Wonders' chances of a championship team next year are excellent because the entire squad consists of juniors, sophomores and freshmen.

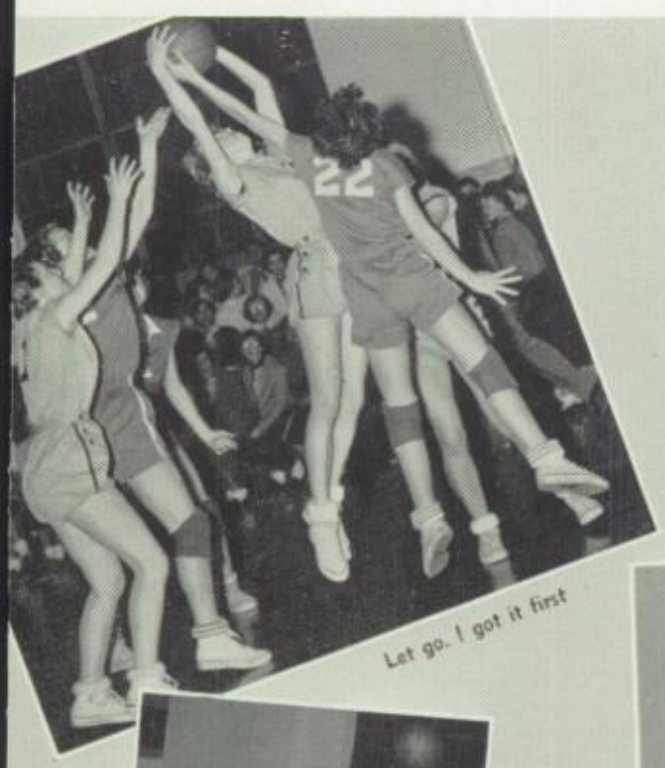
HIGHLIGHTS

The Wonderettes jumped into a more successful winning spree this year as they continued to head straight to the leading position in the S.P.C. race making the standing at this writing four wins against four losses.

Forward Betty Poole and guard Barbara Staton served as co-captains for the '55 season while Coaches Ed Edmiston and Geraldine Turner headed the coaching staff. Mr. 'Bo' Bell assisted the girls in new shots and plays for the betterment of the team.

Although the lassies have dropped four tilts to the strong, fighting teams of Landis and Concord, both foes had to put up a struggle to capture wins.

Betty Poole, Barbara Staton, LaVerne Vinson, Jackie Nesbitt, Annie Lee Styers, Lorene Benfield, and June Blanton saw action for the last time in their high school career but left well-qualified girls to fill the vacancies of the team.



Let go. I got it first

Look coach! one hand

Well?

Watch out I'm shooting

Suspense! hold everything

Dig that crazy crip shot

Then I went round and round

And did you know—

Where's the fire?

Comparison of brains

The morning after—

—the night before

Can't a guy bathe in peace?

Why worry? It's over

There I was—30,000 feet

Intestinal fortitude

Let's volunteer now!

Ebbtide?

Sea level

Full steam ahead!

Coast clear?

Well, let's go

There they stood . . . 60,000 feet

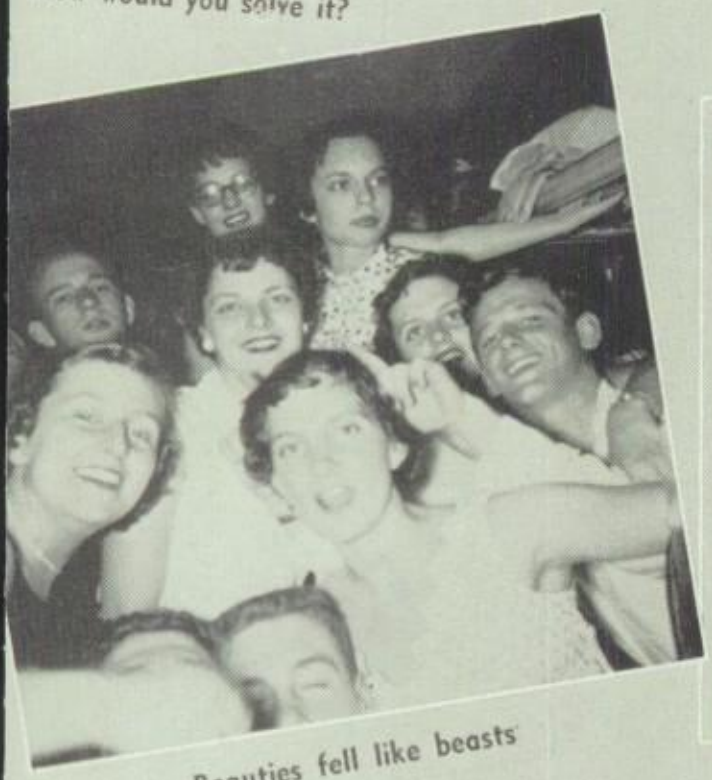
Ever wish you had one?

How would you solve it?

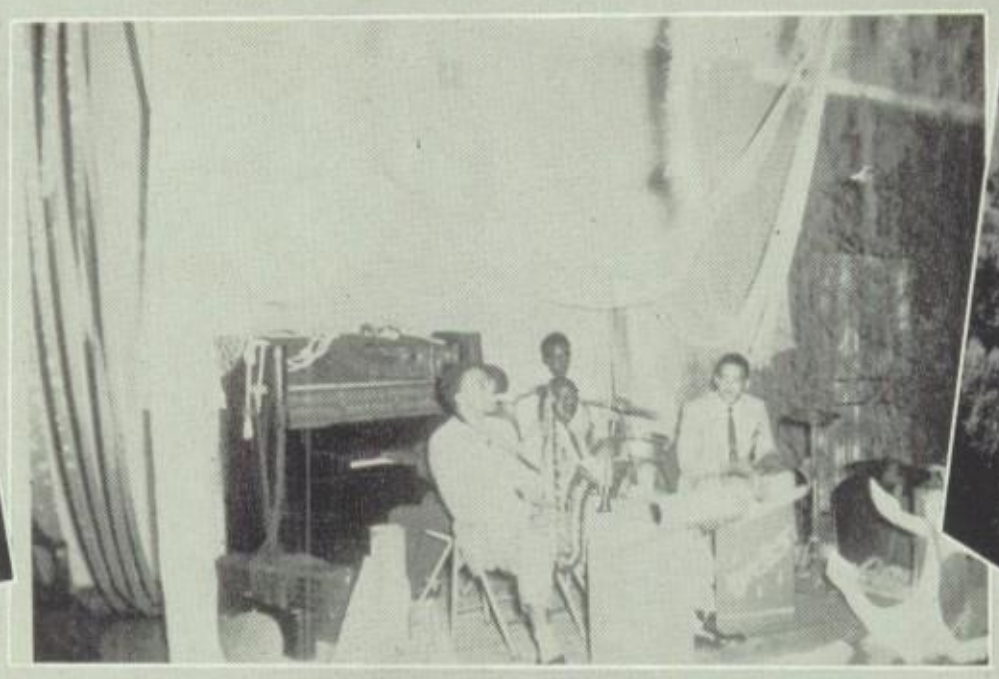
Go greyhound

Tempt me and I'll jump

Silent support is unheard



Beauties fell like beasts



It pays to play

Road-runner

Charm should see this

I dreamt I went to Washington with George . . . .

Ummh, what a night!

Aw—who cares?

I do

Beep, beep,—Brrrrmm

Imagine, now they play basketball

What's this—a can-can line?

Oh no, not another one!

Look what the tide brought in!

Hats off to the "traffic cops"

Egyptian craftsmanship

Ride 'em, cowboy!

Ere ye goin' my way?
